

KIDS SUMMER READING KICKOFF PARTY

"The Funtastic Fable Maker: Aesop and his crazy characters"

with The Central Mass Repertory Theatre

Wed., June 25, 11:00 am * No registration required.

Live theater with a talented cast of high school and college students.

Children may sign up for summer reading before or after the show.

Games! Face Painting! Crafts!

Sponsored by the Burlington Cultural Council & Friends of the BPL

Summer Programs for Kids

For more information see www.burlingtonpubliclibrary.org

- July 1 6:45 pm "Music with Mr. Andrew" Burlington favorite, Andrew Gentzow, engages children ages 3-7 in a participatory musical show. No registration required.
- July 8 1:30 pm "Go Wild Magic Show" with magician Greg McAdams as he takes you on an imaginary and wild tour of the library. No registration required.
- July 15, 29, Aug 12 2:30 pm "Kidstock!: Three Original Musicals" July 15, "Congo Line"; July 29, "Emperor's New Kangaroo" & Aug 12, "Surfing Beauty" All shows put on by kids for kids. No registration required. Preferred seating on August 12 for children who complete 24 hrs of reading in the Wild Reads@your library Summer Reading Program.
- July 16 10:15 & 11:15 am "Explore the Ocean World" introduces children to a variety of live sea creatures, as well as skeletal remains and a craft. Touching will be allowed. Registration required. (preschool and schoolage children at 2 different times.)
- July 22 2:00 pm "Get Spooned" (which is a whole lot better than getting forked) with Spoon Man, Jim Cruise who plays 2 ordinary household tablespoons. No registration required.
- July 23 6:30 pm "India for Kids" KhelMel uses puppets, yoga and crafts to introduce Indian culture to children. No registration required.
- July 30 3:00-4:10 pm "Clay Works" Ann McCrea tells an arctic story and teaches kids how to sculpt arctic animals from clay. Registration required for claymaking. All welcome to storytelling.

- Aug 1 11:00 am "Mountain Mushers: Sled Dogs from Denali National Park" Meet 3 retired sled dogs and learn about teamwork, cooperation and being all you can be. No registration required.
- Aug 5 6:45 pm "Gators, Octopi, and Grizzlies..." join local author Judith Jango-Cohen for facts and stories about some of our favorite wild animals. No registration required.
- Aug 7 10:30 am "Wingmasters: North American Birds of Prey" Jim Parks brings 5 wild birds of prey and explains their adaptations and places in the environment. No registration required.

AUGUST 12 SUMMER READING PROGRAM FINALE 2:30 pm
Kidstock!: "Surfing Beauty Preferred seating at this event for children who completed 24 hours of reading in the Wild Reads@your library Summer Reading Program. For more information see July 15.

- Aug 22 4:00 pm "Storytime with Maisy" Barnes & Noble brings book character Maisy to visit the library. No registration required.

Scrabble Club

June 24-July 29
Tues, 3:30 - 4:45 pm, grades 4 - 8. New and inexperienced players welcome.

"Scrabble Tournament"
July 31, 12:30 - 4:30 pm:
Teams must register by July 24. Tournament
co-sponsored by the Woburn Public Library.

Chess Basics

Begins June 23
Mon, 7-8:45 pm, any age.
BHS graduate, Peter
Hovey, teaches chess.
Registration encouraged.
Also, July 7 & 21,
and August 4.

Summer Programs for Teens and Tweens

For more information see www.burlingtonpubliclibrary.org

"Karaoke Night" June 20, 6 - 9 pm

"Professor Trelawney's Divination Class"
July 9, 4:30 pm

"How to create Anime with Shauna"
July 16, 7 - 9 pm

"Skin Care with Green Tangerine Spa"
July 28, 6 - 7:30 pm

"Guard Up: Martial Arts"
August 13, 6:30 pm